BOOK MAKING WORKSHOP

Autumn 2019

A high intensity workshop for those looking to learn about photo editing, story-telling and book making for photographers. The workshop asks participants to create a story line and build a small book. Participants will have to, not only, work on their photographic skills but also create a mock-up book featuring the story developed in class. The workshop is based on the teacher's experience as both a photographer and graphic designer. (↓ books from previous students)
